Drake-Gates Combination Proves a Heavy Leser—J. C. Core's Good Work—Change of D stance of Steeplechase Causes Protests and Complications

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 27.-Big gaps in the crowd in the grandstand, plenty of room to move around in the betting quarters and empty boxes in the clubhouse told plainly to-day of the beginning of the end of the race meeting here. Every train leaving town carried a generous quoia, of turimen and this will be the story until the Cavanagh special pulls out on Thursday evening.

The pace has been swift and expenses hence few regrets will be heard when the last race for the meeting has been run The management will not complain any with the lessening of patronage. The meeting has been the most successful financially in the history of the place. The sport has been cleaner than ever before, and the racing, so far as calibre goes, all that could be expected with so few really first class horses active training. All things considered, the meeting means a big boost to racing, and an object lesson to the few who are so anxious to deery it.

As for the sport to-day, it failed to bring any developments that could be termed ou f the ordinary, unless it was the wholesale defeat of good things. The track was in worse condition than it has been at any time since the opening, and this in a measure was responsible for upsetting the plans of the wise ones. Still stable plungerswere wide of the mark and the investments made

The Drake-Gates combination lost heavily. Broadcloth, for the first race, was one of those good things at odds on. They took the price for thousands, only to see Broadcloth beaten home by Bertha E., a 15 to chance. Later in the afternoon they backed Grapple to win the Amsterdam Selling Stakes with just as much confidence and considerable more money than they did Broadcloth, only to see their hopes again blasted. Right Royal, another 15 to 1 chance heat them out for first honors. The defeats were probably due to both being a trifle short. It is not often Trainer Wishard is fooled in this respect, but he was to-day.

J. C. Core's victory in the two-year-old handicap stamps him even better than his admirers had rated him. He conceded all the way from eleven to thirty-five pounds to the lot opposed to him, yet came close to making an exhibition of them. All Miller had to do was to let him run with the pace to the end of five furlongs. Then, with a letdown, he bounded away and won by himself in the next thing to a gallop. This colt is one ore of the good ones that were purchased at the sale of the stable of Harry Brown J. C. Core has no stake engagements at Sheepshead Bay, but at Gravesend, Aqueduct and Jamaica he will be out for some of the fixtures. The other day, on a fast track, he ran six furlongs in 1:12 3-5, winning easily. To-day that mud does not bother him. This ability to run at his best in any sort of going adds materially to his value.

The seventh race to-day was intended as contribution from the association to the horsemen but as it turned out, in place of posting anything, it brought profit. winner, Mortiboy, was entered to be sold for $500 and when offered was bid up by U. Z. De Armand to $2,000. The customary $5 raise then took him back to his stable The added money in the race was $600. The association's share of the surplus was $752.50, which means $152.50 above the amount tendered for the extra purse.

Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., has sold Sir Russell to Dr. Rowell of California, who is supposed to represent Ed Gaylard, a well known Westerner, who is getting together an extensive string. The price was $2,500, which looks full value; but the colt has been improving steadily of late, and he should be more than useful on the San Francisco tracks, where he will be raced the coming winter.

nery, the two-year-old by Pessara-Montcomery Cooper, who won so easily on Friday. He offered $8 000 to Fred Forsythe, the colt's owner, but this was promptly declined, as Forsythe thinks the colt way above the ordipary. He ran at Hot Springs last spring, winning a number of good races, then went smiss and is now getting back to his true form. He has one stake engagement at Sheepshead Bay, the Sapphire.

The stewards of the Nutional Hunt and Steeplechase Association will at once take up with the Coney Island Jockey Club the change in the conditions of the Great Autumn Steeplechase. The original entry blanks sent out for the race called for a distance of three miles, and after a number of nominations had been sent in another set of blanks was issued with the distance at two and a half miles. Some of the owners that entered for the original race were not notified of change, in fact knew nothing of it until the programme book was issued, and even then thought the change to two miles and a half was simply an error of the printer, have protested against the change and have appealed to the National Hunt and Steeple chase Association. The defence of the Coney Island Jockey Club will probably be that it has, under the rules, the right to change the conditions of any unclosed race, but the protestants assert that their entries made for a race at three miles are included in those scheduled for the event at two and a balf miles, and they have never been asked to sanction the alteration in their blanks. As the race has $7,000 in added money the complication promises some interesting argu-ments, and those must be settled without delay as the race is to be run a week from next Saturday.

Finnigan got an ugly fall with Maximilian in the steeplechase and it looked from the stand as if he had been badly hurt, but after a ride to the jockeys' room in the ambulance was found to be all right beyond shock and bruises.

Fourteen carloads of horses left here today for Sheepshead Bay, and as soon as the cars can be unloaded and returned they will be sent on for the remainder of the week. These, in addition to those that go out on the regular trains, will ship a bigger part of those waiting for transportation, still many will be compelled to remain over until next week Not a sick horse could be found among those that have been or will be shipped. This clean bill of health is very pleasing to the trainers, who feared the extreme heat which prevailed during the greater part of the meeting would prove disastrous. Some cripples go back, of course, but otherwise the condition of both the two-year-olds and the older horses is

Bell/gerent, carrying the colors of B. McLennan, made his debut as a jumper to-day and finished a good second to Paul Jones. Considering that it was his first trip through the field, his performance was more than satis-factory to his people. This colt was bred by August Belmont, being by Don De Oro out of St. Bridget, and raced as a two and three-year-old in the colors of L. V. Bell. He is a rother to Brigadier, the first horse in this country to run a mile on a circular track in 1:38. Speedy horses have made our best soon work his way to the front rank.

Hayman backed his horse Right Royal to win the Amsterdam Selling Stakes, Morris Hayman backed his norse Right Royal to win the Amsterdam Selling Stakes, being tempted by the long price and the colt's known fondness for soft going. Right Royal won the Crescent City Derby on a similar track two winters ago; in fact he has run his best races in deep mud. His trainer, Roger Minton, deserved great credit for getting him into winning form. His first race this year was on July 9 at Brighton, as he was on the dou't ful l'st all spring.

While going to his stable at Horse Haven after his race, Yorkshire Lad broke away from the boy leading him and before he was caught he had cut himself seriously. The horse has been in A. L. Aste's stable only a few days. Aste claimed him out of a selling race on August 15.

Work and Play, the rptly named son of Gotham and Brighton Feach, was heavily backed for the seventh race, But after the dink for half a mile the colt and his rider tired badly. Lowe, who rode, gave promise lest spring of developing into a fair rider, but he had a fall that kept him out of the sendlesseems to have dulled his skill.

HARD LUCK FOR JOHN A. DRAKE. Grapple and Broadcloth, Both Heavily Backed, Are Beaten.

SARATOGA, Aug. 27.—John A. Drake ran up against Old Hard Luck here to-day when Grapple and Broadcloth, carrying his colors and heavily backed at odds on, were de feated. Grapple was pounded down to 1 to 2 in the Amsterdam Selling Stakes, at a mile, but after leading for seven furlongs he weak-ened, and M. L. Hayman's Right Royal, 15 to 1, beat him rather easily by a length and a half in 1:42. Red Leaf, 12 to 5, was a poor third. Broadcloth, heavily supported at 15 to 20, after setting the pace for nearly three-quarters of a mile in the first race, at seven furlongs, was beaten a head by Bertha E., a 15 to 1 shot, who just lasted. Miller got Phalanx, a 30 to 1 shot, into third place. The time was 1:29. T. Hitchcock Jr.'a Paul Jones, 7 to 5 fayorite, was easily the best in the steeplechase, about two miles, winning in a gallop by four lengths from Belligerent, 40 to 1. Waterford, 6 to 1, was third, five lengths away. Maximilian, well played at 11 to 5, fell when he was running second and going well. The race was run in 4:31.

J. C. Core, 3 to 5 favorite, ridden by Miller, handled top weight in the two-yearold handicap, six furlongs, successfully. He was far and away the best and beat They're Off. 7 to 2, in a romp by five lengths, with Lally, 15 to 1, third. The time was 1:16.

The finish in the fifth race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs; was the most sensational of the day. William Easton's Animus, backed down to 11 to 5 favorite, got up in the last stride to win by a head from Russell T., 10 to 1, who in turn beat Plausible, 3 to 1, by the same margin. Mitre made the pace to the last furlong and then quit. The ime was 1:10.

After running Sailor Boy into submissive-After running Sailor Boy into submissiveness in the first mile, Bivouac, 2 to 1 favorite, won the handicap at a mile and a furlong with ease by two lengths, Miller taking the place with Yorkshire Lad, 5 to 2, by three parts of a length from Sonoma Belle, 11 to 5. Bivouac's time was 1:58.

Mortiboy, 7 to 2, lasted long enough to win the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, by a head from Fish Hawk, 4 to 1, who closed with a rush and beat Vaquero, 8 to 1, by a couple of lengths. The Oneck Stable's Work and Play, backed down to 5 to 2 favorite, led for half a mile. The time was 1:09 4-5. Four favorites and a second choice rewarded the form players. The track was good. BEHR FIGHTS TO A VICTORY.

WINS AFTER THREE HOURS OF

GRUELLING TENNIS.

Apparently Beaten Several Times, Yale Player Railies and Defeats Little in Five Set Match-Clothler Captures the

Other Semi-final Battle at Newport. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 27.-Yale pluck. That is the epitome of the semifinal lawn tennis match which Karl H. Behr, Jr., won to-day in the struggle for the national championship. Seven times in the fourth set the opponent of the Yale man was within a stroke of victory, and each time Behr beat Raymond D. Little by wonderful place shots or used forcing tactics so that the international player was finally shaken off. Behr captured the match in five sets. The score was 2-6, 6-2, 6-8, 11-9 and 6-4. So severe was the gruelling of this re-markable contest that waged with wavering fortunes for more than three hours that toward the end of the fourth set Little was taken with cramps in his legs, and his inability to cover his court afforded Behr an opportunity to win the crucial set. Little's right hand and forearm fightened with cramp in the fifth set and toward the close he was unable to get direction to his strokes.

It was not the physical weakness of Little but the wonderful stand made by Behr when but the wonderful stand made by Benr When he was a beaften man that will cause this contest to go down in lawn tennis history as one of the most remarkable exhibitions of grit and nerve ever was witnessed on the courts of the Casino. In every way the uphill work of young Behr equals those remarkable days over the net of the redoubtable Bob Wrenn.

grit and nerve ever was witnessed on the courts of the Casino. In every way the uphall work of young Behr equals those remarkable days over the net of the redoubtable Bob Wrenn.

While this match was being fought out on the championship stretch of turf. William J. Clothier was defeating J. D. E. Jones, the expert of the Longwood Cricket Club. Clothier was too skilful for Jones to do more than plod along against him.

Rain fell in torrents early in the morning and the court lines were washed out. The wet and heavy courts, together with the slippery surface, did not suit Behr's speedy game. The service went to Little and he put speed on the ball when it was yet new, but Behr crowded in to the net and, despite Little's rood work, the points touched deuce four times before Behr captured the game by two place shots. Then Little displayed his experier ce and resourcefulness. He kept foreing Behr, and as the latter found the heavy ball troub-esome he dropped behind until, mainby a Behr's errors of nets and outs, Little tock the firag set at 6-2.

Then the Yale player turned the tables on his opponent. He got to the net position despite all the skill that Little could bring into play. Many of the railies in this set were splendidly played out, but Behr carried off the set by 6-2 by his show of speed. The work of the men was much the same in the third set. Little, by good judgment as to varying his game, forced it to 8-love. Again Behr made a great recovery, but this burst of speed caused him to become erratic. Little captured the set, his second of the match, at 8-6.

The tide of victory swirled around the games of the fourth set. Still forcing his opponent, Little went straight ahead to the lead at 5-1, and Behr secmed only fighting valuantly against the inevitable. It only seemed so, for Behr out loose again, and by his wonderful placing, in which he shot the ball sizzling through Little's court, he won five games in rapid order. It gave Behr the last two games by love scores and the longest set of the tournament at mage a remarkable record this season, and whatever may be his fortunes in the final, he is recognized as a coming champion. The day's summaries:

TWO MATCHES AT SEA GIRT. Company H of Sixth Massachusetts a Winner

-Troublesome Conditio

SEA GIRT. N. J., Aug. 27.-Two matches were disposed of on the opening day of the combined meetings of the National and the New Jersey State Rifle associations to day. The Fourth New Jersey won the Columbia trophy match, open only to New Jersey teams, and Company H of the Sixth Massachusetts won the company team match from a field of twenty from every part of the country. The conditions were discouraging, showers at times almost obscuring the targets and a tricky wind running at a twenty mile clip from west to south. At no time except at the opening of the range was the light good and the twenty National teams that were scattered over the big range picking up elevations found their first Sea Girt day a puzzler. All of the more prominent teams puzzler. All of the more prominent teams of the National competition were on the field except the New York team, which is due on Thursday. Doyle, Wells, Corwin and Case of New York, however, entered the individual matches at the wide and long ranges.

The Columbia trophy match began at 9 °Clock with the First. Fourth and Fifth New Jersey regiments lined up at 200 yards. The First took high boards at both 200 and 600 yards, but the other teams came a gropper at the mid-range with poor scores. The skirmish runs were equally poor, following on a brisk shower. The Second Regiment put up the high run with the low average of 47 points. At the final stage, the 1,000 yard point, the First led with 762 points, but the Fourth, with an average of 36, a fine performance, shot into the lead and won by 21 points, the Second crowding in ahead of the First. The final standing of the teams was:

Fourth Regiment, 967; Second Regiment, 946; Pirst Regiment, 943; Fifth Regiment, 760.

A more closely contested event was the First Regiment, 933; Fifth Regiment, 760.

A more closely contested event was the company team match with feven shots at 200 and 500 yards for teams of five. None of the four service teams was represented, but teams as far separated as Maine, Washington, Colorado and Montans added to the interest of the match. The winner, Company H of the Sixth Massachusetts, led at 200 yards with a good total of 143 points, but was beaten at 500 yards by Company C of the Fourth New Jersey and Company F of the Second Montans. The winning scores:

Company H, Sixth Massachusetts, 292; Company C, Fourth New Jersey, 289; Company D, First Maine, 287.

To-morrow will be a big day for the cracks with the Hale match at 600 yards in the morning and the Leech cup match at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards in the afternoon. More than 100 entries had been made this evening for the Hale match, and the Leech cup match has attracted the cream of the long range cracks. Richards of Ohio and Wells of New York are both on hand to defend their respective titles to the Leech cup and the Hale trophy matches.

SLIM CROWD AT READVILLE. Prohibited Betting the Reason-Seventeen Starters in 2:13 Trot.

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 27.—There were barely 1,000 spectators at the Grand Circuit meeting this afternoon, although there were some fast events carded. The reason for the failure of the public to support the light harness racing here can be assigned to no other cause than the prohibition of betting. The first event of the day was the 2:07 pace, and Prince Hal took all three races easily. The gelding was handled well, keeping close up to the leader until the three-quarter post was reached and then coming home with a was reached and then coming home with a rush.

Lolara won the first race of the 2:15 trot in a hot drive to the wire, with Lady Resolute second. Lady Resolute led to the far turn, when Lolara came up strong and dashed under the wire two-thirds of a length to the good. In the second race, however, Lolara did not respond to the whip quite so readily and Lady Resolute finished well up. In the third race O. H. W. gave Lady Resolute a race-down the stretch-but-was just nosed out. Lucretia dropped on the stretch in the third race but revived quickly and was led from the track.

There were seventeen starters in the 2:13 trot, and great difficulty was experienced in getting them away without advantage to some one horse. Kinstress won the first race, making a new record for herself, but was nosed out by Allie Jay in the second race and in the third fought it out successfully on the stretch with Betty Brooks.

CHEWINK'S SECOND VICTORY. Beats Manchester 24 Seconds in Race for the Quincy Cup. MANCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 27.-To-day's race for the Quincy cup was won by the Che-wink VII., the outcome being in doubt up to the last quarter of a mile. It was the fifth race of the series and the victory of the Chewink indicates that unless something unusual happens the trophy is likely to leave the custody of the Manchester Yacht Club, which has held it for six years. The series now stanc's two victories each for Chewink and Bonidrei and one for the Manchester.

The race was twice over a windward and leeward course, total of distance, ten miles, and was sailed in a puffy Southwester that compelled the skippers to reef down close. The Bonidrei took the lead at the start and retained it until she had begun the second beat to windward, when the Manchester crossed her bow. The Manchester was first at the turn, but on the run home the Chewink came up rapidly and won by 24 seconds from the Manchester. Summary:

CRICKET. Bostonians Win Easily in Their Game With Kings County Eleven.

The first game of the tour of the Boston cricketers resulted in an easy victory for the visitors by 151 runs. The Kings County cricketers resulted in an easy victory for the visitors by 151 runs. The Kings County eleven, which opposed them on the grounds at Prospect Park yesterday, was particularly weak in batting and only one man, W. Scott, offered any resistance to the bowling of J. Young and R. Fairburn. Scott hit out in good style and made several boundaries in his compilation of 23, and W. Dunning exhibited a sound defence while contributing 9. Young captured five wickets for 23 runs and Fairburn took five for 24.

A. C. Bell made top score of the game in a well played inning of 35. E. E. Gittens came out with the best bowling figures for the home side with four wickets for 23 runs. B. Wimpenny secured four for 39, while the one wicket obtained by G. W. Barnes cost 57 runs. The score: Boston, 180; Kings County, 49.

The Staten Island Club journeyed to Paterson yesterday to play the local club. The teams were tied for first place in the Metropolifan District Cricket League championship. The Islanders batted first and after scoring 109 runs for seven wickets declared their innings closed. The Patersons made 48.

ADMIRE HARVARD CREW. Morgan Only on Trial and May Be Replaced by Flint. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN

Putner, England, Aug. 27.—The Harvard crew rowed from the Old Ship to Walden's Wharf to-day with the wind at their backs in 5 minutes and 19 seconds, with an average stroke of thirty-three. The crewis complete, but Morgan, who was ill on the voyage from New York, is only on trial and may be replaced by Flint.

The Harvard crew afterward had a start from the moored skill and rowed thirty-six to the minute. The style of the Harvard crew is winning admiration. Tom Sullivan, ex-professional champion, said to-day that the form of the crew was excellent.

The Harvard crew launched their boat late owing to the fact that Newhall was absent attending the funeral of his niece. Falkner rowed in his place. The crew paddled easily from Chiswick to Eyot, mairing one or two sharp spins.

Cambridge rowed one and a quarter miles in 6 minutes and 9 seconds. PUTNEY, England, Aug. 27.—The Harvard

The New York and St. Louis teams clinched in a close and stormy struggle at American League Park yesterday, the New Yorks winning by solving Powell's delivery in the nick of time. In short, the New Yorks finished strong, being helpless before Powell for seven innings, then making timely hits in the eighth. Powell was outpitched by Chesbro, who was in top form. The only run bearer of the Browns was launched on his career on a base on bails, and in connection with his scoring hangs a tale of an exiled manager.

Koehler having drawn a pass in the fifth inning, O'Connor put him on second with a sacrifice. He went to third on Powell's out, via Yeager and Chase. Niles, a fast mover, slipped a slow bounder to short. Elberfeld shot the ball over to Chase lightning fast. Niles alid into the bag, and it was a close decision that confronted Sheridan there. He gave St. Louis the benefit of it, Koehler coming in on the play. Griffith made a savage kick on the decision at first and scolded until put off the field. A group of rooters hooted at Sheridan for his decision and kept it up at intervals for the rest of the game. President Ban Johnson was in a box, and some of the comments of the rooters led through Sheridan to Johnson.

Elberfeld was put out of the game for a lick in the save the hall

Ban Johnson was in a box, and some of the comments of the rooters led through Sheridan to Johnson.

Elberfeld was put out of the game for a kick in the same inning. He threw the ball down in a huff because Niles was called safe stealing. Niles surely looked safe and Elberfeld's demonstration bore the marks of being merely an outbreak due to a peppery temper rather than based on any imagized grievance. There was another growl by the New Yorks in the sixth inning when Stone beat out a throw by Yeager to first.

A double play rescued Chesbro from the Philistines in the first inning, when two Browns were on bases and only one out. On Hemphill's line fly to Yeager Stone was doubled off first. Chase whaled a three bagger to left in the second inning with nobody out, and this time Powell wriggled out of danger. Good pitching did it, for Red Jack fanned Yeager, while Delebanty and Moriarity hoisted plain or garden fly balls.

One of the three hits the Browns made—all three were scratch hits—was the result of Elberfeld wandering out into left field for a fly that belonged to Delehanty. A superabundance of cooks spelled the broth; which, translated, means nobody caught the ball. Chase made a bad throw to second of Powell's force and two were on bases with none out. But Chesbro held the key to the situation. Two base runners were forced and the terrible Stone struck out.

Powell made a sprawing dive for Delehanty's little punch in the eighth inning, but could not get hold. Moriarity's fly to right did not help any, but Kleinow's lick did.—It was—a-two bagger to centre, on which Delehanty rambled home. Chesbro fanned, and Powell, preferring to take a chance on Hoffman splashed a single to centre and whiffed twice and the passing of Conroy looked to be good judgment—but it was not. Hoffman splashed a single to centre and hrought in Kleinow with the winning run.

DENATURED ALCOHOL QUESTION A BIT PERPLEXING.

Device to Protect Cars in Case of Fire -High Price Charged for Gasolene in England-Change of Plans Likely for the Second Annual Economy Test. Because denatured alcohol will not be placed on the free list until January 1, 1907, here are many automobilists who are of the opinion that the Automobile Club of America hould not conduct its denatured efficiency test until after the present prohibitive tax on this fuel has been removed. Those who have discussed the matter say there is little or no denatured alcohol on the market at present and that there is no general under-standing of the formula to be used to render grain alcohol unfit for use except as a motor fuel. Another point is the cost of grain fuel. Another point is the cost of grain alcohol, which is more than $2 a gallon on account of the high revenue tax. It is unlikely that there will be very many private owners of automobiles who will be sufficiently interested in the merits or demerits of denatured alcohol as fuel to make many experiments with it when they would have to pay such an unreasonable price for the fuel. According to gossip in the automobile trade there are several manufacturers who are engaged in extensive experimental work with carbureters and motors designed for alcohol, but it seems unlikely that this preparatory work will be far enough advanced to assure any great number of entries for the A. C. A. test, if it is held in September, as was the original intention. Prof. Charles E. Lucke of Columbia University is making experiments with alcohol for the United States Government, but it is not likely that the results of his experiments will be avail-able until about the first of next year, when the revenue tax will be removed from denatured alcohol.

Having in mind the fire that so nearly destroyed Hemery's winning Darracq racer last year just after the Vanderbilt cup contest, one of the American frms that test, one of the American frms that have entered for this year's American elimination trials has made elaborate preparations to save its cars in case of fire. The racing machines are to stand on inclined runways and will be kept inside the building by blocks under the wheels. In case of fire the blocks could be knocked from under the wheels and the racers would roll out of danger from their own weight.

New Yorkers who have deemed themselves imposed on because they are now charged 25 or its a gallon for gasolene are more fortunate than Londoners who are addicted to automobiling. A couple of years ago the price in London was 16 cents a gallon, but at present it is 36 cents a gallon, while in other parts of England 40 and 45 cents is the price charged. To add to their troubles it is asserted that there will be a further advance in price for 1907. The effect which this continual rise in price will have on the commercial side of automobiling is so great that it is probable that an organized attempt will be made soon to devise an alternative fuel or some method of treating kerosene so that it can be used without leaving an offensive odor.
